

Lakeland Regional Health (LRH) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. Lakeland Regional Health does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

LRH provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as: qualified interpreters and information written in other languages.

If you need these services or if you believe that LRH has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance by contacting LRH Resolution Services by phone or by mail:
